Regulations and Consequences for 4-H Afterschool and Summer Programs

4-H rules and regulations must be followed at all times. Failure to do so will result in a consequence appropriate for the severity of the violation, including dismissal from the program. This is to be considered your ONE AND ONLY WARNING!

One and Done:
Behaviors of the following, considering severity, may result in IMMEDIATE DISMISSAL from the program and may result in police intervention.
Parents will be called to pick up their youth at the time the incident occurs.
- Intentional physical violence towards any person or animal
- Threat of physical violence towards any person or animal
- Possession of a weapon of any kind
- Stealing of any kind
- Intentional unsafe behaviors to cause harm to self or others
- Destruction of Property
- Leaving an assigned group while off grounds
- Any behavior that is against the rules of a field trip location
- Use of alcohol, tobacco, or illegal substance
- Leaving grounds without parent or permission

Three strikes and you’re out!
Behaviors of the following will result in one strike (documented paperwork). Three incidences and you may be IMMEDIATELY removed from the program. Parents will be called to pick up their youth at the time of the third incident and a parent meeting may be scheduled before the youth is able to return.
- Refusing to follow a staff directive
- Refusing to participate in a scheduled activity
- Using snack and/or soda machine without permission
- Leaving assigned group while on school grounds
- Going to areas assigned for other programs
- Failing to arrive to the afterschool program on time
- Asking another staff to for permission to do something once one staff member has already denied permission
- Dress code violations
- Use of disrespectful or foul language of any kind

By signing, you accept and agree to the regulations and consequences put forth by 4-H Afterschool/Summer Program.

4-H Afterschool/Summer

During your enrollment in 4-H Afterschool programs, we want you to have the best experience possible. Please review the following dress code to assure that no one will feel offended or uncomfortable during the program.

If you choose to dress inappropriately, you will be asked to change, be required to wear a camp-issued shirt, if available, or your parent will be called and you will be asked to go home for the day.

By planning ahead and dressing appropriately, you will save yourself the inconvenience of having to change and you will be contributing to a pleasant camp atmosphere.

Please be advised that the following dress code will be enforced for all individuals attending the camp, including staff, counselors and chaperones.

- Clothing: All clothing shall be neat, clean, and acceptable in repair and appearance and shall be worn within the bounds of decency and good taste as appropriate for 4-H events.
- Shorts, skirts, skorts, etc. must be fingertip length or longer.
- Articles of clothing which display profanity, products, or slogans which promote tobacco, alcohol, drugs, sex or are in any other way distracting, are prohibited.
- Excessively baggy or tight clothing, and clothing which advertises gang symbols or affiliation is prohibited.
- Items of clothing which expose bare midriffs, bare chests, undergarments, or that are transparent (see-through) or translucent are prohibited. Tank tops with straps wider than one inch are permitted. Please be advised that spaghetti straps, shirts which expose a bare back, halter tops, and tube tops are prohibited.

Swimming (For all water recreation):

- Swimsuits for young men: swim trunks only (No shorts, cut-off pants, or Speedos).
- Swimsuits for young ladies: One-piece suits required, however, two-piece tankini’s are allowed as long as they cover the midriff. No string, thong or crochet suits will be allowed.
- Swimsuits may only be worn during swimming activities.
